Oracle Client Installation

Insert Oracle disk1 and run setup, the following window appears:

Click on Next, the following window appears:

Select the Path to install Oracle on and press Next

On the following window, select Oracle9i client and press Next

On the following window, select Runtime and press Next

On the following window, click on Install to start installation

Wait until the installation is complete.

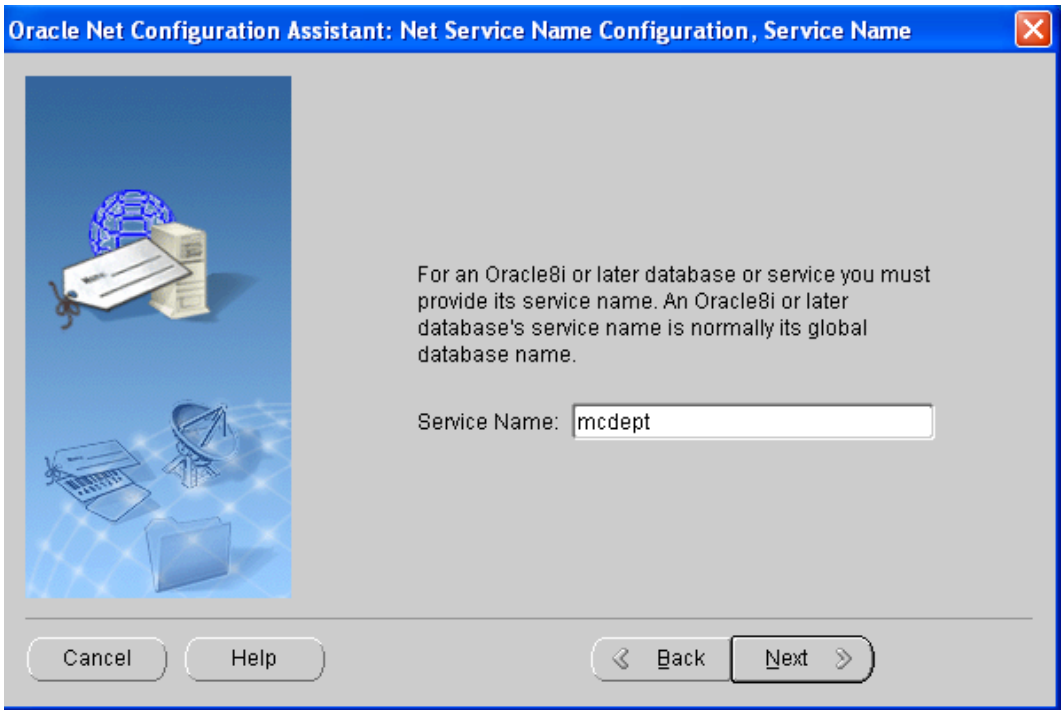

When the scale on the window has reached 100% then the following window will appear. On this window select the option NO, I will create net service…… then click Next

The following window appears, select Oracle 8i or later……. and click Next

The following window appears, enter the Service Name (the Database name, usually an abbreviation of the hotel name) and click Next

The following window appears, select TCP and then click Next

The following window appears, enter the Host name (Server name or IP address where the database is installed, then select Use another port number 1521 and click Next

The following window appears, select Yes, perform a test and click on Next

The following window appears, click Change Login and enter user name as "scott" and password as "tiger".

Once entering the user name and password as above the message below MUST appear "connecting…. Test successful"

Then click on Next

The following window appears, select No and click on Next

The following window appears, click on Next, and on the next window click on Finish

Oracle Client installation is successful and you can proceed on to install Materials Control.